COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The facilities for sewerage disposal at the Town Garage have become inadequate so that it has become necessary to install a new septic tank. A trench has been excavated and filled with rock for proper drainage. There should be no further trouble for a number of years.

Under the ordinance requiring building permits it also includes installing a heating plant or a bath room. If anyone has installed either a heating plant or bath room this past year and have not obtained the necessary permit, even though the work has been done a permit should be obtained. There is no fee for the permit.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

ANNOUNCE COMMITTEES FOR FELLOWSHIP SUPPER

Mrs. George Taylor and Mrs. Charles Byper, co-chairmen for the Around-the-World Supper to be sponsored by the Women's Fellowship of the West Parish Congregational Church on Oct. 28, announce that six countries will be represented: America, France, Sweden, Germany, China, and Mexico. The menu at each country's table will be truly representative of that country, and the table decorations etc. will be in keeping with that country's scheme of things.

Chairmen in charge of the tables representing the different countries are: Mexico—Janet Richardson, Leslie Marcuse; Germany—Phillipa Glines, Gertrude Hutchins; France—Monique Rolfe, Eva Bean; China—Lillian Young, Edda Carver; American—Celia Gorman, Ruth Dorion; Sweden—Barbara Brown.

Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased by contacting any of the above chairmen, or by telephoning Mrs. Herbert Rowe (Vandike 4-232) for reservations.

Officers for the coming year are: Noble Grand, Clifton Jackson; Vice Grand, Earl Beane; Recording Secretary, George Lohrop; Financial Secretary, Lynn Bennett; Treasurer, Carl Brown; Warden, Earl Hutchinson; Conductor, Ernest Angewier; L. S. N. G. Shirley Chase; L. S. N. G. Herman Mason; R. S. V. G. Earlyn Cronin; L. S. V. G. Reginald Godwin; R. S. S. Victor Brooks; L. S. S. Wesley Wheeler; L. G. Rodney Chase; O. G. Charlie Brown; Chaplain, Francis Palmer.

NEW BOOKS AT THE BETHEL LIBRARY

Adult Books: "Bat Masterson," by Richard O'Connor—the biography of one of the West's most famous frontiersmen and marshals—a man's book. "The Three Faces of Eve," by Dr. Corbett H. Thigpen and Hervey M. Cleckley. Three hundred years ago she would have been burned at the stake, "Possessed by demons." For this shy, retiring, housewife would suddenly, and without warning, turn into a provocative girl, ready for any irresponsible adventure. And there were times when she was yet another woman! As the story unfolds it generates the excitement of a suspense novel and the fascination of a case study.

Young People's Books: "Sweet Promised Land," by Robert Layall. Dominique dreamed of returning someday to the land of his beginnings in the French Pyrenees. Unlike most of his countrymen, he did at last make the trip. It is a memorable story, written with warmth and humor and affection, and well liked by young people.

"Wings Harbor" by Lucile McDonald and Lois Ross. Jane accepted her first 4-H club job eagerly because it would take her away from home, who had just died her but within a few weeks she was tempted to run away again because of new problems, among which was an old friend, Kenneth Wharton trying to date her.

Mrs. and Mrs. Mafford Cassell and three children, Washington, D. C., are spending a two week vacation with Mrs. Cassell's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wright and family, Bethel, were week end guests at the Wright home.

P.T.A. HOLDS OCTOBER MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

The second meeting of the Bethel P. T. A. was held at Crescent Park School with 114 parents and interested people in attendance. Frances and Wallace Saunders greeted each guest at the door. Communications were read from the Maine Congress of Parents and Teachers, inviting all P.T.A. members to attend a meeting at the new Virginia school in Rumford on Oct. 29 at 7:30. A small registration fee will be charged.

Jim Brown reported on the Halloween party to be held at Crescent Park School on Oct. 31. Dana Douglass and Wilbur Myers reported on the possibility of the basketball game with the Globetrotters in the spring.

Supt. Charlie told of the games and equipment bought for the outside schools. Charles Helms reported on the forthcoming national education week to be held Nov. 10 to 15. The group voted to buy place mats to be distributed in public eating places advertising this education week.

It has been looked into and found that an ice skating rink could be made outside Crescent Park school. Hearing the report from Charles Helms the P.T.A. voted to sponsor this project.

Barbara Douglass reported on the Portland Little Theatre. A motion was made and seconded to set a date for a spring showing.

The January meeting will be combined with the Health Council to hear Dr. Easton from Norway speak on fund-raising. This is on Jan. 24. Amy Davis is to represent the P.T.A. at the Health Council meeting.

The eighth grade won the attendance banner. The door prize was won by Celia Vachon. After the meeting a most interesting talk was given by Major General Frank P. Lowe of Madison on the United Nations with which he has been closely connected. His talk was based on his own personal views from experience in three wars.

Refreshments were served by the seventh grade mothers.

MASONS TO DEDICATE HALL SATURDAY EVENING

Saturday evening Bethel Lodge No. 97 A. F. & M. will formally dedicate their new lodge rooms. The Rev. Aubrey L. Hartbank of Waterville, Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maine, will bring a complete corps of Grand Lodge officers to help with the ceremony and he will deliver an address following these exercises.

Supper will be served by the ways and means club of O. E. S. at 8:30 p. m. A large number of visitors from lodges in the surrounding towns are expected.

HANOVER HIGHWAY TO LEAVE OLD LOCATION

Work was started last week by Frank Rossi, Gardiner contractor, on 4.2 miles of highway construction in Hanover. The project begins at a point .7 of a mile east of Newry Corner, continuing easterly to the section of road built 16 years ago through Hanover village. R. S. Merrill is the state engineer on the job.

The new road will have a bituminous concrete surface 24 feet wide with eight foot gravel shoulders. There will be 1 1/2 miles of guard rail and excavations on the job will total 200,000 cubic yards.

The scrapers used on the work have a capacity of 18 cubic yards, and the power shovel will handle 2 1/2 cubic yards at a time.

More than 70% of the construction will be on new location. Near the easterly end of the road, the places of Mrs. Maynard Chase, George Stearns, Wesley Bean and Carroll Bean, and the Top Hat Pavilion will be passed on the north. The new highway will be located to the south of the homes of Ira Brown, Donald Kennedy and Ralph Haggood. In both cases parts of the old road will serve these places.

Pictured here are views east and west as construction began on relocation west of the home of Charles Bartlett. The heavy earth moving equipment is shown removing much of a hill and using it for fill in the Bartlett field.

REV. JAMES MACKILLIP

Rev. James MacKillop died Monday at Franklin County Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient eight weeks.

Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, on June 7, 1890, the son of James and Jessie Sommerville MacKillop, he received his education in Edinburgh schools, coming to this country in 1906. A graduate of Gordon College of Theology and Missions, Boston, he was ordained Nov. 9, 1927, at Alton. He held three pastorates in Massachusetts before coming to Maine in 1918.

He has held pastorates in Cambridge and Parkman, Princeton, Levant, Oatfield, Alton, Northboro, Bryant Pond, Richmond, North Livermore and Jay. Prior to his recent illness, he served churches at Whitefield and North Whitefield.

Rev. MacKillop was a past president of the Rural Church Commission of Maine; on the staff of the New England Baptist Conference at Ocean Park; a member of the American Baptist Convention; Maine State Baptist Convention; Tri-County Ministers' Association. He also was serving as president of the New England Town and Country Church.

On June 14, 1917, he was married at Brookline, Mass., to the former Marie Crockett, who survives. Other survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Thelma MacDowell, North Livermore; a son, Howard, Bryant Pond; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Copland, Lake George, N. Y.; six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the Bryant Pond Baptist Church. Interment will be in the Lakeside Cemetery, Bryant Pond.

PETER J. KUVAJA

Peter J. Kuvasa, a well known farmer in Greenwood, died at his home, early Saturday morning. Born in Kuusko, Finland, Feb. 27, 1885, the son of Jackko and Eva Kuvasa, he came here from Finland in 1901 and lived in Greenwood the past 45 years. He married Ester Heikkinen in 1914.

He is survived by his widow; two sons, Walter, Norway, and Elmer Kuvasa, Greenwood; two daughters, Mrs. Sylvia Heikkinen, Hebron and Mrs. Pannie Polinen, West Paris, two sisters, Mrs. Immi Harila and Mrs. Anna Kuvasa, both of Finland and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the I. W. Andrews & Son funeral home, South Woodstock. Rev. Felix Mayblom officiating. Interment was at the Finnish Cemetery, West Paris.

ideas from other editors

From the Lincoln Times, Lincoln, N. C.: No matter how much we read about billions, the word still has a numbing effect on the not-too-mathematical mind. A thousand million of ANYTHING is an awful lot to grasp or to visualize. For instance, we have just learned that last year, for the first time in history, the American people reached the $10 billion mark in their expenditures for milk and dairy products. We are also told that this represents 18.8 percent of the national food bill of $50.7 billion, and that we've spent more than $4 billion for drinking-milk and pouring-cream!

The per capita expenditure for ALL dairy products was approximately $2.50, of which $1.10 went for milk (and cream).

The per capita milk surplus is now less than two ounces a day. As a bonus of factory labor bought 8 1/2 quarts of milk in 1954, 4 quarts in 1955.

The cow is crowding the dog for the national title of "Man's Best Friend."

From The Boston Herald, Boston, N. J.: An 81-year-old country newspaperman, Chet Lampson, editor of the weekly Jefferson, Ohio, Gazette, has provided the country with a dramatic example of the power of the press. Mr. Lampson's paper is small, and its power was exerted against one of the biggest organizations in existence—the U. S. Treasury Department. But David slew Goliath!

Here's what happened: Mr. Lampson received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service demanding payment of an alleged income tax indebtedness of $8. The notice sent his blood pressure soaring. First of all, he didn't believe he owed the money. But that was a minor consideration. What really angered him was the insulting wording of the notice, and its threats of attachment of income and seizure of property unless the claim was paid at once.

Mr. Lampson didn't confine his views to the columns of his own paper. He wrote the President of the United States and various other officials, including members of Congress. He stated that, "No agency of Government should be allowed to insult any citizen, or deny him his constitutional rights to inflict cruel and unusual punishments on a mere assumption that the taxpayer is a willful violator of the income tax law."

To make a long story short, Mr. Lampson got results. The Internal Revenue Service is changing the wording of its form, and you can bet that the new version will be couched in much more courteous language.

Economic Highlights

Developments That Affect the Future of Every Individual — National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare

American industry has laid great stress and spent vast amounts of money on research—much in which it takes justifiable pride. Out of the laboratories have come all manner of new and improved products and processes. Out of them, also, has come a huge body of basic knowledge which may produce miracles in the future.

Yet this achievement has produced problems. George A. W. Boehm deals with it in the October issue of Fortune. Research costs, he says, have been getting out of hand. Depending on industrial research has reached $7 million a year and is climbing fast. It now costs an average of $35,000 a year to pay a professional scientist and equip him with the necessary facilities and helpers. Mr. Boehm quotes an industrial executive as saying, "At this rate, there'll be nothing but research in industry—no products, no services."

The situation is further complicated by the revelation that—according to a recent survey—two-thirds of all research projects fail to produce useful results. And still another complication lies in the fact, Mr. Boehm puts it, that "without doubt industrial research is the most difficult of all business operations to measure and control." For instance, few executives are equipped to understand scientific work in any of the complex field of sciences. And few scientists understand or are interested in the administrative and economic phases of industry.

In an attempt to solve the problem, Mr. Boehm goes on, "the executive specialist on the management level" has been created: the research administrator. He is concerned with every aspect of research in management process.

And here is a case where the demand far exceeds the supply. A leading management consultant has said that he is harder to find than any other kind of executive. A rare and unusual mixture of consulting talents and interests are needed. Mr. Boehm sums it up this way, "The man must be a good scientist—yet not so academic that he loses himself in technical details. He must have enough business acumen to select research projects with high economic potential—but he must also have the courage to gamble on long-range research that may never pay off. He must keep his scientists busy on routine but necessary projects—yet he must give them time and freedom to explore the byways of science that so often yield revolutionary discoveries."

Even when a good research administrator is found, management's problems have just begun. Decision still must be made as to how to govern research, what to approve and disapprove as a general policy, whether or not to go ahead from the company's tradition areas of work, how much money to allocate, and so on. Then, Mr. Boehm says, "the management's toughest dilemma is appraising the worth and efficiency of its research." Of ten, it just isn't susceptible to dollars-and-cents evaluation. Some big companies don't even try to apply that yardstick. Others have specific formulas for making the measurement, though none of these seem to be completely satisfactory.

This does not mean that industry is losing faith in research. Its confidence is unshaken. But it does mean, to quote Mr. Boehm again, that "No one has yet discovered a neat and precise way to put a fair price tag on the work of one scientist or a task of them. Thus one leading research director concludes: 'Research can be managed in a business-like way, but not in a way like other business.'"

LIFE LINES

by Ted Ralph T. Miller of The Salvation Army

HE PUTS BACK THE STARS

A young man, a member from the Bethel Baptist Church, has been awarded the Star of the Month for the month of September. The young man is a member of the Bethel Baptist Church, and he has been a member for some time. He has been a very active member, and he has been a very good example to the other members of the church. He has been a very good example to the other members of the church, and he has been a very good example to the other members of the church.

If we really people really need the Star of the Month, we should have a Star of the Month for every month. We should have a Star of the Month for every month, and we should have a Star of the Month for every month. We should have a Star of the Month for every month, and we should have a Star of the Month for every month.

We need the same power that came from the Star of the Month. We need the same power that came from the Star of the Month, and we need the same power that came from the Star of the Month. We need the same power that came from the Star of the Month, and we need the same power that came from the Star of the Month.

He had been crucified. Their world fell apart. Atrial for their lives, seeing nothing ahead but ruin, they ran as fast and as far as they could.

Then something happened to them. Something so transforming that they dared to stand before the high priest and say, "He was the Son of God, and you killed Him!"

What had happened? "Jesus came and stood in the midst of them and said unto them, Peace be unto you." The crucified one had risen from the dead, and had returned in "put back the stars into their sky."

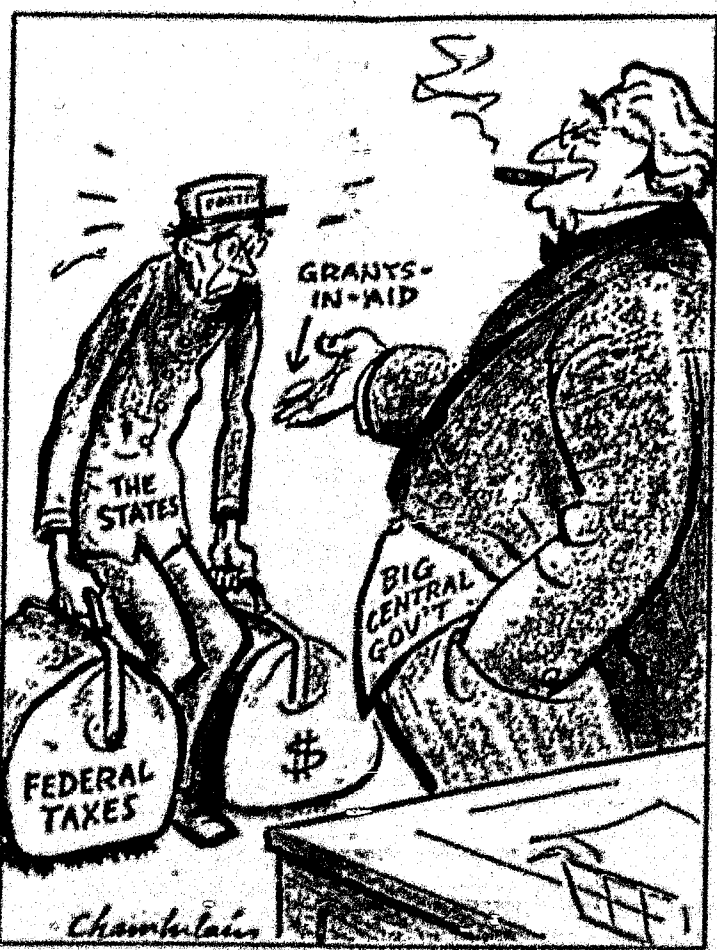

That miracle still happens. This world is going to be saved from self-destruction, if at all, because there is a group of people who have had a experience with a risen Redeemer, and who know that He lives, and has given us some-thing worth living for.

If two things are cannot rob us, namely, of choosing the best, and of helping others that to choose.

TODAY'S Meditation

Thursday, October 17
Read Psalm 133:1-3.
They, continuing daily with one accord...praising God. (Acts 2:46, 47.)

The minister answered the telephone. Some unknown man was complaining that the snowy sidewalk in front of the church was unshoveled. "Was the caretaker unmindful of the safety and comfort of working men who had to plug through on their way to and from work?"

In reply, the minister promised that the walk would have attention. But had the complainer ever gone by the church in summer and seen the roses and gladioli and bushes aflame with beauty? Yes, he had. Had he ever called the church then, praiseful for the sight? A strained silence followed. Perhaps the right. —Arthur W. Brown, (Canaan was recalling the expression, "An expert at complaining; an amateur at praise.")

Prayer
Our Father, save us from the gloom of thankless living. Help us to recognize Thy blessings to us. Tune our hearts to sing of Thy love. Open our lips that they may speak for Thy praise. In the dear Saviour's name. Amen.

WHOOPIING CRANES
It is a good thing that hunters are not always out to kill the denizens of forest and plain. And sometimes the fast dwindling of a species has served to call a halt to the slaughter of that group and has led to humane efforts to protect the species and increase its numbers. Such has happened to the whooping crane, a gigantic bird that because of its great size and cumbersome flight had fallen an easy prey to hunters.

In recent years it was found that the whooping cranes in the world had been reduced to less than thirty. Two of these were in Audubon Park, New Orleans. The pair, it was hoped, would bring forth little cranes that would grow up and add to the whooping population. The first did not survive, but now the second pair, born in a special enclosure, with expert care and round-the-clock watching, have grown to be almost the size of their parents.

If the slaughter and maiming of human beings on the streets and out along the highways can be reduced, if the nations can somehow work out a long-term truce, half as much will be done for mankind as for whooping cranes. But it will still be necessary to protect the human race from the thousand ills that flesh is heir to. So may the thought of statesmen and rulers be directed more and more to the welfare and happiness of their people.

Q—Is Federal Aid to Education an outgrowth of recent Federal policy?
A—Yes. While education as such is considered primarily a matter of local and state responsibility, Federal aid to education goes back to 1862 with the passage of the Morrill Act, which originally applied assistance in the form of grants of public lands. Following this Act, later laws developed a system of Federal aid to education which included assistance to state land grant and mechanical arts colleges; agricultural extension work; vocational education and rehabilitation; Federal grants for school construction in areas of military installations and Federal grants in aid on a money basis.

Q—How do members of Congress qualify for retirement benefits and how long must they serve to become eligible?
A—Since August 1, 1954 members of the Congress must pay 4% of his base pay which is deducted from his salary each pay day. For service prior to that date the deduction is somewhat lower. He must serve at least six years to be entitled to annuity on basis of pay and service. If he is age 62 or over, upon leaving office his annuity will begin the first day of the month following the month his service terminated. If he is not 62, his annuity will begin on the first day of the month in which he attains that age. If he becomes totally disabled after completing five years, he would be entitled to annuity beginning the first day of the month following termination of salary, irrespective of age. If he retires prior to his six year service he receives a refund of his contributions plus 4% interest compounded annually.

Q—Do members of Congress pay income taxes?
A—Yes they pay the usual income tax and campaign expenses are not deductible.

Q—Are Senators restricted to the number of committees they may hold membership?
A—Yes. But a majority party member may serve on as many as three committees. A Representative has slightly less scope of membership.

Summit, Miss. Son: "...the U. S. Treasury paid $50 million as interest on the $22 billion Social Security trust fund invested in federal bonds.... In short, you've paid social security once when you pay your tax—and you pay more on it every time the government pays interest on those bonds!"

Terra Haute, Ind., Tribune-Star: "...Though the mythical 'average' American can buy almost 50 per cent more consumer goods than he could buy in 1929, inflation could play hob with the figures. It already is putting a painful squeeze on some people, and in some degree it is affecting all of us. Inflation, far from being a vague threat, is a real danger than can gobble up our economic advances unless it is kept under control."

GOULD ACADEMY

Last Home Game Saturday
Gould Academy will be host to Berlin Saturday in the last home game for the Huskies. Coach Scott's eleven now has a 2-2 record but rate an even chance to get into the win column again here against the Mountaineers. The last two games of the season will be played at Berlin and Fryeburg. This Saturday's game is scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m.

The Junior Class of Gould Academy has elected the following officers for the 1957-1958 school year: President, Kirt Newson, of Greenville, N. H.; Vice President, Frederick Dallinger of Lovell; Secretary, Mary Jasper of Elliot; and Treasurer, Judy Watson of Kears Falls.

Gould Runners Defeated

At Portland 25-31
Portland High won over Gould Academy in cross country last Thursday by a 25-31 score. Don Angeline and Rupert Grover, however, finished first and second in the race. Portland runners finished in the next five places giving them a score of 25. Berrier, 34th; Lincoln 35th, and Roberts 11th, completed the Gould scoring.

London Takes Gould 24-14

Form held true as London Institute the host team, won over Gould last Saturday 24-14. The two teams have played 12 games; three have been ties and in every other instance the home team has won. This leaves the Vermonters one up with five wins to four for the Academy. Total scoring over the 12 year period is Gould 113 and London 118. As usual the game was a thriller, hard fought to the last whistle. With less than two minutes to go,

SCHOOL NEWS

Grade 8
Smockey the Bear came to visit the Crescent Park School last week. He talked about forest fires and also sang a few songs. The eighth grade went roller-skating last Friday night and had a wonderful time. We are planning to have two food sales soon to make money for our trip. The boys will have one and the girls another, competing to see who brings in the most money. Reporters, Elizabeth Waldron and Patty McMillan.

Grade 7 — Mrs. E. Lord
Last week we had a program on Fire Prevention Week and invited Mrs. Ring's 4th grade to see it. Smockey the Bear visited the school Friday the eleventh. He gave us a lot of advice on fire prevention which was very interesting. We are now studying Italy and certain people have been giving reports on interesting topics of Italy. We have started thinking about Thanksgiving and a committee has been elected which is Betty Tyler, Gloria Harrington, Del McMillan, and Francis Buckman. Over the week end Betty Tyler injured her knee-cap preventing her from attending school on Monday. — Dale Kimball, Reporter.

Grade 6—Miss Varner
We have had some interesting discussions about "Spinoff," the satellite. As last week was Fire Prevention Week, we made posters to show the dangers of fires. We are trying to sell enough magazine subscriptions in order to get a plastic globe that is 18 inches in diameter on which we can write with a special pencil. On Monday we had a movie on "Newfoundland" and a film strip on "Edward Jenner," the man who discovered the vaccine for smallpox. — Reporter, Clarence Remington, Jr.

Grade 5—Mrs. Doris Lord
Monday we passed in our Maine notebooks. Mrs. Lord picked out the six best notebooks for display for visiting teachers. The most outstanding ones were as follows: Diane Lohrop, Cindy Freeman, Norma Sloan, Lorraine Farnes, Carol Flint, Martha D. Keniston. Also on Monday we started the study of Canada. The children are bringing books on Canada. We are selling P.T.A. tickets and magazine subscriptions. The magazines will go for different prices for our room. Our top saleswoman is Glynis Witter. She has sold $12.25 worth of magazines. Mrs. Lord had an Asian flu shot, Thursday. — Reporter, Christine Stevens, helper, Norma Sloan.

Grade 4—Mrs. Kneeland
Smockey the bear came last Friday to visit our school. We got Fire Prevention pins. We have pictures of Queen Elizabeth and of her visit to Canada on our bulletin board. And we have a picture of Jimmy's airplane trip. We are selling magazine for a new plastic globe. Jackie Crouse sold the most tickets and won a pen and pencil set. Today we got some P. T. A. tickets and are trying to sell them too. We are going to have a Halloween party, October 31—by Nancy Fox.

Grade 3—Mrs. Hastings
We had a talk last week in spelling. The Fifth and Sixth grades are selling magazines to help our room get a globe. It's a very big globe. Some children brought in some pictures of Queen Elizabeth. Smockey came last week. A boy asked how wide he was around the chest. Smockey said, "Do you mean around the chest or the waist?" He said he was 55 1/2 inches around the waist. — Betty Stevens and Diane Swain.

Grade 2—Mrs. Ring
We are sorry to hear that Rhonda Brown has a broken leg instead of sprained ankle. — Mrs. E. Lord's seventh grade invited us to their Fire Prevention program. They had a talk, and sang Smockey the Bear. We used the program, and we thank them for the invitation. In social studies we are studying about Norway.

WEST PARIS

Mrs. Rexie Inman, Correspondent
High School News

All the faculty members W.P.H.S. attended the annual State Teachers Convention in Portland.

The magazine sales campaign was successfully completed recently, with the goal of $600 reached and topped. The high salesmen were Elaine Penley, Judith Olson, and Irene Berry. Gloria Ward won the Look Award, for selling the most subscriptions to Look. The proceeds will be used to furnish new basketball uniforms for the boys' team, and warm-up jackets for both the boys' and girls' teams.

The Sophomore class ordered class rings from Donald Tupper, of the Balfour Company of Attleboro, Mass. The seniors' invitations and name cards were also ordered from Mr. Tupper.

The Seniors have accepted the offer of the Stevens Studio in Bangor to take their class pictures. The photographers will come to the school to take the sittings in the near future.

Several students are again taking lessons from Mr. Lothrop and Mr. Henry, who come to the school on Monday and Tuesday of each week. They work through the Starbird School of Music in Lewiston.

The orchestra has been increased somewhat this year, with several new participants from both the grammar school and high school. These new musicians are: Saxophone players—Joanne Hawkins, grade 11; Alice Young, grade 10; Pauline Todd, grade 7. Trumpet players—Jimmy Curtis, and Jerry Ellingwood, grade 8; Carmen Hadley, grade 7; Bruce Downing, grade 6; James Moffitt, grade 9; Eric Sundelin, grade 10; Lorelei Walenski, grade 9. The old stand-bys this year are, Judith Ellingwood, Judith Mayblom, Mary Boyle, and Elaine Penley.

The movie, "Maggie," starring Jeanne Crain, was recently shown in the main room of the high school. The Readit Staff for October has just been announced. It is headed by the Co-Editors, Nancy Yates and Joan Eastman. They are assisted by: Business Managers, Jean Baker and Mary Boyle; Exchange Editor, Eve Day; Literary Editor, Donna Andrews; Sports Editor, Mary Ann Perham; Boys—Eugene Hayes; Alumni Editor, Marjorie Howell; Typists, Avis Parr, Mary Cole and Carollee with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Farrar, during their parents' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Buck, Pigy Hill, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker. Randy and Linda Mullen spent the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Andrews, South Woodstock. John Belts and son, Ronald, and Tommy Brown of Lynn, spent the week end at Walter Inman's camp at Hick's Pond. Guests of Harry Inman on Friday were Mrs. Marion Buck and Eugene Andrews of Norway. Mrs. Matti Waisanen is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Heikki Mustonen, in Massachusetts. Oliver Lawrence was transferred from the Stephens Memorial Hospital to a nursing home in Mechanic Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ellingwood spent last week visiting points of interest in Machias, Calais, Van Buren and Bangor. Mrs. Mabel Emery returned from the Maine Medical Center and is being cared for by Mrs. Ruth Emery. Guests of Principal and Mrs. Clarence Reid during the week were: Mrs. Agnes Carson, Mrs. Doris Idler and Mrs. Lyle Carson of Huntington, L. I. N. Y. Miss Nellie Hammond, Gorham, N. H., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Inez Curtis. Mrs. Thomas Verrill and daughters, Virginia and Celeste, of San Francisco, Calif., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wagar. Mrs. Verrill was a former resident of West Paris.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perham during the week end was their son, Boscoe, and grandson, Rocky, of Gosport. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perham and family of South Paris. Another measure of civilization's progress is the way that the cost of relaxing keeps going up. Changing Times

The West Paris Home Extension set for an all day meeting, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Frances Braden, with 12 members and seven children present. The program "Refreshers on Refinishing Furniture" was in charge of Mrs. Marjorie Gardner. At noon an emergency feeding style dinner was served on the lawn by Mrs. All Benson and Mrs. Braden. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. All Benson, Nov. 7. Program, "Better Care for Longer War," also election of officers. Boosters Night was observed at the West Paris Grange meeting Saturday evening. A public harvest supper preceded the meeting. Good Will A.U.W. met at the Good Will Hall Wednesday evening. The devotions presented by Mrs. Marjorie Ellingwood were on "United Nations." Mrs. Mary Perham reported on her week at Fort Beach. Mrs. Marjorie Ellingwood gave a report on the fall setting of the A.U.W. at Biddeford, which she attended on Monday. On Oct. 31 the society will serve the Kiwanis luncheon at the Good Will Hall. Following the meeting a snack lunch was enjoyed. Rev. Felix Mayblom was the guest preacher at the Finnish Congregational Church at Thomaston on Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mayblom and his church choir.

Nine Universalist Churches in the Oxford Association circuit were represented Sunday at their 112th annual area meeting held at the West Paris Church. UPTON

Mrs. G. A. Jenkins, Corres.
Mr. and Mrs. Antone Corries of East Providence, R. I., are enjoying two weeks vacation at their cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Prescott Tucker Sr. of Dover, Mass., were in their return from the West Coast. Mrs. Guy Pratt of Dover, Mass., is spending a few days with Mrs. Mabel Durkee.

The weather is still mild. C. A. Jenkins has just harvested the last of his peas, corn, spinach, Swiss chard and beet greens, from his garden, just as tender and good as anytime during the summer.

Kendrick Jenkins had some more work done over the week end by Bernard Powers with the shovel, where he is going to build his new store.

Malcolm Barnett has been ill with the flu. Mrs. Lila Barnett has returned from the Rumford hospital, where she went for a medical check-up last week.

Several out-of-town people spent the week end at their summer camps. Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Jenkins have seen "Sputnik" two mornings in succession this week shortly after 6 A. M.

Word has just been received by Mrs. George Wright that her son, Richard Enman, graduated last Friday from Radio School with 4th honors at Norfolk, Va. Monday this week he entered the Naval Hospital. His address is Richard P. Enman RSMN, 491-27-75, Ward 13, Naval Hospital, Portsmouth, Va.

Conservation Farming
In Oxford County

by Douglas L. Marston
Soll Conservation Service

Fall tree planting in the burned-over land in Brownfield is presently in progress. The Oxford County Soll Conservation District tree planter under the direction of Clifford Swenson of the Maine Forest Service started their fall work on October 7th.

Twelve acres were planted on the District's lot during the first part of the week. Later 16 acres were planted on the Fred Walker lot in Brownfield. Twelve acres were also planted on land of Roger C. Dunn of Brownfield. The District's "V" type clearing blade, mounted on Raynor Brown's bulldozer was used for hauling the planter.

The costs to the landowner run about $35 to $40 per acre and 80% of this cost is borne by the Soll Bank Program under a special program being supervised by the Maine Forest Service.

Earlier this summer most of the areas being planted were sprayed to reduce the competition of the scrub hardwood growth that is so common over most of the burned area.
